ISSUE

Withholding Tax— Responsible Officer Liability

Authority: IC 6-3-4-8

Taxpayer protests the assessment of responsible officer liability for withholding taxes.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Taxpayer was the president of a not-for-profit organization. After an investigation, the Department of Revenue (the "Department") found that the not-for-profit organization had not withheld Indiana adjusted gross income tax and county adjusted gross income tax from wages paid to an employee who worked for the not-for-profit organization. Taxpayer was personally assessed for the taxes because she was listed as the president of the not-for-profit organization. Taxpayer protested the finding and the subsequent assessment of withholding tax liability.

A Letter of Findings was issued on December 20, 2001. The Department denied taxpayer's protest and determined taxpayer (1) failed to provide evidence that the employee for which withholding tax was previously withheld was no longer an employee during the assessment periods; and (2) failed to provide evidence that she was not the responsible officer during the assessment periods.

In November of 2002, additional information was supplied to the hearing officer assigned to this case.

Withholding Tax— Responsible Officer Liability

DISCUSSION

IC 6-3-4-8 provides in pertinent part:

(a) Except as provided in subsection (d), every employer making payments of wages and subject to tax under IC 6-3, regardless of the place where such payment is made, who is required under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code to withhold, collect and pay over income tax on wages paid by such employer to such employee, shall at the time of the payment of such wages, deduct and retain therefrom the amount prescribed in withholding instructions issued by the department. . . . Such employer making payments of any wages:

(1) shall be liable to the state of Indiana for the payment of the tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section and shall not be liable to any individual for the amount deducted from his wages and paid over in compliance or intended compliance with this section; and

(2) shall make return of and payment to the department monthly of the amount of tax which, under IC 6-3 and IC 6-3.5, he is required to withhold.

This additional information supports taxpayer's assertion that the employee for which withholding tax was previously withheld was no longer an employee during the assessment periods.

FINDING

The taxpayer's protest is sustained.
